Continental - whose HQ is based in Hannover, Germany, with its Australian branch based in Melbourne, has been a world leader in innovation and technological automotive development since 1871. The company is No. 2 in the Original Truck Equipment sector in Europe and the 4th largest truck tyre supplier worldwide. As a brand Continental is characterized the world over as a producer of premium tyre products developed using the latest technologies, and as a result provide high mileage, traction, durability, safety and lower fuel consumption.

Over forty percent of the planet's overall freight transport is executed using more than 35 million trucks and every year the global truck industry transports the equivalent of 5.5 million times the weight of the Cheops Pyramid around the world. At Continental we therefore understand that your investment in a set of tyres is a serious calculation that must actively contribute to reducing your operating costs throughout the entire life of each tyre. That's why at the Continental Research & Development Head Quarters in Germany we strive to match the specific needs and expectations of all our commercial fleet customers and deliver serviced and products geared YOUR WAY!

As such Continental is proud to support the Australian road transport industry as one of the key sponsors to this year's Australian Freight Industry Awards. Continental would like to take this opportunity to congratulate the Victorian Transport Association for its vision and commitment to stage this all important yearly event and to the 2010 Award winners go our best wishes.
